Auditions took place on Saturday 2nd & Sunday 3rd of September and casting is now closed.

The process of advertising for actors took place through emails and flyers. Initially only men were sought for the three male roles of JR, Bobby and McKay. This was quickly broadened to include women in further advertising (classified ads, internet) and media coverage that included radio interviews and newspaper articles.

Three casts of three have been selected:
JRs: Liam O'Carroll-Norris, Adrian Cooke, Kelly Anne Flynn
Bobbys: Carly Young, Andrew Higgins, Hugh McIntyre
McKays: Stephen Angus, Jim McGookin, Olivia O'Kane.

Our sincere thanks to all the actors pictured here who came to audition. All auditions were filmed, and this material, together with additional footage taken by Alison Moore with the waiting actors has been edited for the screening event on September 10th.
